

Harlem Educational Activities Fund
American Sign Language Teacher for Hearing Students
Grades 6-8

The Harlem Educational Activities Fund (HEAF) is a comprehensive supplemental education and youth development organization that works to help motivated students develop the intellectual curiosity, academic ability, social values and personal resilience they need to ensure success in school, career and life. HEAF identifies scholars in middle school and supports them until they are successfully admitted to four-year colleges through a variety of after-school, Saturday and summer educational and youth development programs.

This fall, we are continuing to offer after school academic enrichment and youth development programs virtually, with the goal of supporting our middle schoolers education and social emotional needs. Teachers will use zoom and google classroom to teach live sessions as well as post assignments for students throughout the after school semester.

Program Details:

- Orientation: TBD
- Program Dates: September 29, 2020 - December 18, 2020
- Instructional Hours: Tuesdays, 5:30pm - 6:30pm
- Administrative Hours: 1 hour per week

Summary:

HEAF after school ASL teacher will use zoom and google classroom to virtually introduce middle schoolers to the central ideas and signs of American Sign Language. Teacher is responsible for designing a curriculum that is interactive, engaging and presents a variety of information to students within the language and use of ASL. Teacher should be able to form strong relationships with all students and use various teaching strategies to engage students in the virtual setting.
